Jonathan Greenberg
General Counsel
Freescale Semiconductor, Inc.

6501 William Cannon Dr., MD: TX30/0E9
Austin, Texas 78735

Jonathan Greenberg has been the senior vice president, general counsel & secretary for Freescale Semiconductor since June, 2010. In this capacity, he manages Freescale's legal functions, including corporate and commercial transactions, protection of Freescale's intellectual property, litigation, and ethics and compliance matters.

Mr. Greenberg previously served as senior vice president, general counsel, and secretary at Spirit AeroSystems, a leading aerospace technology supplier. Prior to that, he served as the vice president, general counsel and chief ethics & compliance officer for United Industrial Corporation, an aerospace and defense technology conglomerate. His in-house legal experience also includes serving as general counsel and senior corporate counsel at two Washington, D.C. area technology companies. Prior to embarking on his in-house legal career, Mr. Greenberg practiced law for nine years, including five years at a major Wall Street firm and a boutique Manhattan law firm, followed by four years at the Washington, D.C. offices of Holland & Knight, LLP, where he was elected partner in 2000.

Mr. Greenberg graduated from the University of Virginia in 1988, where he was an Echols Scholar with a double major in Foreign Affairs and Russian Studies. He is a 1991 graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, and a member of the New York and Washington, D.C. bars.

Mark Strama is married to Crystal Cotti, and the couple has two young daughters, Victoria and Caroline.
