

Founded in 1987, the firm has become a significant force in trial law. We enjoy an ongoing relationship with many national and international companies. The quality of the clients we represent is a direct result of our remarkable track record. Our expertise, success record, client base, and reputation form a "preponderance of evidence" positioning Beirne, Maynard & Parsons as an unparalleled resource in civil litigation. Our experience in civil litigation is vast, with a client roster that encompasses many industries and covers all areas of civil litigation in nearly every legal forum in the country.
