CSI is a full-service litigation company prepared to handle all trial needs. Our comprehensive support of legal teams spans all phases of client engagement, from discovery through trial. We stand ready to help you meet the demanding trial schedules of clients around the courthouse, around the clock, and around the nation.

Our expertise today encompasses virtually the entire spectrum of legal specialties, from aviation, antitrust matters and patent disputes to personal liability matters. We are proud of our reputation in the legal community. Fortune 100 corporations and veteran trial lawyers throughout the United States have called upon us for insights into how best to present their cases to a jury.
