

FRIEDMAN & FEIGER

A T T O R N E Y S A T L A W

Friedman & Feiger is a results-oriented law firm in Dallas, Texas, representing clients in all types of litigation matters and commercial transactions.

We are hardworking attorneys with an unyielding commitment to superior legal representation. We care for our clients and aggressively pursue their rights. We approach every legal matter as a part of a relationship that will continue and grow for many years. We build our relationships with our clients on quality representation and trust.

In addition to a strong commercial litigation practice, we represent clients who have suffered injuries as a result of wrongful death, catastrophic injury and civil litigation matters. We also have a very active family law practice. We aggressively represent clients in business and transactional matters, including real estate, corporate law, estate planning and taxation.
