

Megan Mauro

Megan Mauro is Executive Vice President & Chief of Staff at the Texas Association of Business (TAB). Megan leads the advocacy efforts and several coalitions at TAB Including the Tech Means Business and Chamber Advocacy Coalition. Megan is also responsible for ensuring the organization meets all goals and carries out all initiatives set by the CEO. Megan has represented TAB as the voice of business on economic development, workforce, tort reform, tax, and technology policies since joining the organization in 2021.

Prior to joining TAB, Megan was an Associate at Texas Star Alliance, a contract lobby firm. Megan has over 10 years of experience in Texas politics, working with several Fortune 500 companies, city governments, and chambers of commerce. Megan gained experience in public policy during her time at the Health and Human Services Commission as the Policy and Procedures Coordinator with the Emergency Response Division.

Megan lives In Austin, Texas with her husband Kyle and Great Dane Barnaby.